

Thanks Rereata, the document has undergone a lot of thought and I agree with the principles projected but feel it is more a mission statement than management plan of which many people will not be able to grasp due to its length and intellectual type of language used.

On the positive side I am humbled by the efforts and intellect of those who have prepared the document who clearly have an intrinsic interest for better management and protection of Te Urewera.

Kind Regards,

Nigel